NOTES

- For the purchase and installation of cost-effective natural gas energy-saving equipment and building shell measures as recommended from a customer's energy audit performed by a Qualified Auditor, which are not included in other residential natural gas measures listed in this Program. A Qualified Auditor is defined as a nationally recognized contractor trained in natural gas equipment utilization systems and commercial and/or residential structures as an integrated whole building system. Residential training, certification and accreditation are provided by the Building Performance Institute (BPI) and Residential Energy Services Network's (RESNET®). Commercial training and certification are provided by nationally respected energy auditor certification organizations.
- 2. A customer is only eligible for a rebate, per the calculation for this measure, for areas that meet the baseline requirements and not the entire ceiling/wall area. This is applicable in cases where only a portion of the square footage of the ceiling/wall area meets the minimum baseline requirement.
- 3. A customer will not receive a rebate for the equipment listed in the table above and for a similar rebate offered for the equipment listed on the NO AUDIT REQUIRED rebate form.

Complete the equipment information below only for the eligible equipment that you have selected in the table on the previous page.
